New Business:

At this time, Assessor Pat Bartolmeo, from Schuyler County Real Property spoke with the group about the 2022 re-vals that are currently being done. She said the taxpayers should receive letters around March 1st regarding any change to their current assessments. There was discussion about securing the Tyrone Fire Hall for a Q&A session for taxpayers from both Tyrone and Orange to address the Real Property representative(s). The plan is to have this arranged so that the information regarding this can be included in the March 1st letters.

(1) Supervisor: Don Desrochers reported that the 2021 AUD has been completed and he has spoken to CPA, Carol Golden, and gave her the okay to file this with the State in Albany.

(2) Town Clerk: Deborah Tyler read aloud her monthly report. She added that it has been a very busy tax season thus far.

(3) Justice Clerk: Not present but she furnished the Board with a copy of her monthly report.

(4) Fire Department: Not present.

(5) Code Enforcement: Not present but he furnished a copy of his monthly report which Supervisor Desrochers read aloud. Harold has been attending many training sessions.

He will also be enforcing the Unsafe Building Law.

(6) Highway Superintendent: Not present.

(9) Planning Board: Rory Miller reported that they had a couple of subdivision applications and that they Board has all been in attendance to their meetings.

There was some discussion with the Assessor about how vacation rentals are assessed.

(10) County Legislature: Mark Rondinaro updated us on the latest sales tax figures.

(11) Lakes Association: Cartha Conklin says nothing going on now. Will probably start meeting again in April.

No further business.

Motion by Allen, second by Eyer to adjourn at 7:30 pm.

Respectfully submitted,

Deborah L. Tyler
Town Clerk
